G'day (feels great to say, I don't get to say it very often)

Today is a drizzly grey day, a good day to have as a day off, sleep in, stay inside where it is warm (thank you Lord for the gas), and to catch up on correspondence.

So why does a missionary get to sleep in on a work day of the week?

Friday night, Saturday night and Sunday night were all late nights not just in staying up late, but staying up with young people from Razhishiv. The Ministry Centre is getting more and more use as is the pool table and the data projector. Praise God for these tools He has graciously provided. I do feel that it can leave me drained, pray that I take my daily strength from the Lord.

One exciting aspect is that we have a number of young people who are Christians attending and bringing along non Christian friends.

Three names to pray for this week are: Tamara, Maxim and Yaroslav.

They have all heard the gospel and are happy to hear it. Please pray that the Holy Spirit now works in them to bring them to faith in Jesus. We can plant and water but God gives the growth.

Last week I seemed to be extremely busy all week with a lot of late nights preparing for youth group and Sunday's sermon. Having to check that things will translate etc makes things take that little bit longer.

I also had a great day in Kiev on Saturday. It was a beautiful day and I went for a short cruise on the Dnepr River with beautiful views of Kiev sights on both sides. Made me think of Sydney Harbour (aahh nostalgia).

Please don't stop praying. There are so many things to thank God for so just praise Him for His goodness and ask Him to continue to bless and work here in Ukraine.

Tamara
Maxim
Yaroslav

Praise God for:

- For supplying all my needs
- For strength to do what He wants me to do each day
- For the best friends in the world in Australia and Ukraine

Pray for:

- For Maxim, Yaroslav and Tamara
- For wisdom in decisions over the summer time
- For God's blessing on our humble efforts

Thanks for:

- Praying
- Love to you all

Keep Looking Up

The web site has the story of a week in the day of Jono in the Ukraine.

This was prompted by questions following a phone link up with my church West Pennant Hills Community Church.
