Note the carefree slinging over the shoulder and the big scratches!

ALUSHTA!

Why have I been so long in corresponding? Because Alushta has been my home for the last 10 days (plus two days of travel on the train). This was an amazing time both relationally and also spiritually. I've felt a little distant from God lately (He hasn't moved) and He was down in Crimea waiting for me. Each morning I woke up and looked out my tent at a beautiful sunrise over the Black Sea. God is good.

My idea of getting better at Ukrainian didn't seem to work. The girls from Razhishiv got better at English and my workable English vocabulary shrunk even more. I used my diary as a sort of English outlet and you can read my stories of Crimea on the website.

IT'S BACK TO SCHOOL!!

Yes, Lord Willing I will enrol in University this week in Kiev for a one semester course in Ukrainian for foreigners. Although this will cut back on most of my current ministry it will equip me for a greater range of ministry in the future.

Please pray for my brain and my desire in studying and also for suitable accommodation in Kiev during the week.

RETREAT

Monday and Tuesday of this week are team retreat to review the past 12 months and plan ahead for the next 12. It is really exciting to have 4 Ukrainians involved in this team. God is growing His church and the gates of Hell will not prevail against it.

40 DAYS OF PURPOSE

I am still working through this book and thoroughly recommend it to anyone who has not yet read it. God is teaching me how love is so important and that love equals TIME. It equals sacrifice. May I never get so busy doing that I forget what I am supposed to be being.
