Old RPD and Monthly updates are also available there too, so check to see if you have missed any.

Language

I start language studies next Monday. Cheryl (from our team) and I will have a private tutor for 2 hours a day Monday thru Thursday with 4-6 hours a day homework. I also have accommodation with a friend from a town near here who has rented an apartment in Kiev. So thank God for all this working out and pray that I keep a clear head and stay focused on the task even when it seems like a never ending uphill battle.

Baptism

On Saturday I went to Karniv (about 50 kms south down the river), to witness Grecia's baptism. Grecia is a student here in Razhishiv and a passionate Christian. He was brought up in an orphanage and took me to see the place where he grew up. There are about 200 orphans there now. I was shown great hospitality by Grecia's church in Karniv and we may take a team there in the future to minister with them.

Another difficult family situation

A little while ago I asked you to pray for Larissa whose father was not letting her come to church. Praise the Lord, although he is opposed to her faith he is allowing her to come. Now Toma (Tamara) has been forbidden by her Mum to come to church or youth group or the discipleship group she was doing with Dan. Her Mum talked to some people and decided we were bad people and not to be associated with. I've talked to Toma and she is trying to keep a good head about it but doesn't see her Mum changing her mind for anything. Well our God is bigger than that! Please pray for a miracle again in this situation. Pray for Toma's Mum. Her age group is a difficult age to minister to. They seem to have particular coldness towards spiritual things. Above all pray that Toma's faith is strengthened. God knows best.

40 Days of Purpose has finished

I think I'll go through it again fairly soon to consolidate some things in my mind. Check out the website for an idea I wrote in response to chapter 38 in the book.
