Doldrums

Sometimes you have a bad week.

Last week is one I'm glad is behind me. I didn't really like it at all. Maybe I forgot my own advice to "be near God" or my Gran's advice to "Keep Looking Up". Today would've been her 93rd birthday.

God loves me anyway

Towards the end of the week, God showed me little tiny things to remind me that He loves and never stops loving me.

- Toma's Mum let her come to youth group on Friday night for a couple of hours. PRAISE THE LORD! She was really happy too.
- I spent about 3 hours at the local school (interrupting their lessons) and showing an audio/visual I had made of their athletic carnival.
- There were more new people at youth group.
- Saturday was sunny enough for me to get my washing dry.
- I even went to rugby training with a local Kiev club!

Praise God for:

Toma coming to youth group
God's love all the time
Thanksgiving Feast

Please Pray for:

Dan and Pris return to Australia next week
Language study (still plodding along)
Preaching at church in two weeks time

Thanks for:

God knows, He loves, He cares, remember this
Thanks for praying and don't stop.

Love to you all

Keep Looking Up

Thanksgiving

Yesterday we had a special feast to celebrate Ukrainian Harvest Thanksgiving. It was a great time where we ate, shared a lot of stories, had communion together and wrote out special "Thankyou God for" letters..
