Merry Christmas

May I take this time to wish you a very Merry Christmas.

Thank you for your prayers this year. I realise this time of year is very busy so I'll keep it short.

I expect to have very limited internet access over the next little while so I may take a while to reply to your emails. Please don't send any big files or forwards.

I'm travelling to Romania this week and am hoping for a little R & R before I head home. I have most things packed up but there are always unseen things to finalise.

We had a great church pot luck winter party on Saturday night. Hopefully the first of many. Was a great time to reflect on the year past and also on gifts, the gift of Jesus being the greatest.

Next Sunday is the Ukraine re-election. Please pray for peace and for a fair and honest vote.

Praise God that Toma was able to join with us on Saturday night. She had a really good time. She is still shining the love of Jesus out of her life. Please pray that her Mum would see and respond to this love of Christ.

Please pray for Dan and Pris. Last news is that Pris is doing fine but she could be ready to go any day now. Dan called and spoke to a number of the young people after church and just made their night.

Don't get caught in the rush. Remember Christmas is about the ultimate gift of love. Show a little love to your friends, your family, your neighbours and some strangers.

Praise God for:

That Toma was able to join with us on Saturday night.

Pray for:

Please pray that Toma's Mum would see and respond to this love of Christ.

Please pray for Dan and Pris.

Thanks for:

Thanks for reading & praying

Thanks for everything

Love to you all

Keep Looking Up
