AOTEAROA - The Land of the Long White Cloud

So far NZ has been beautiful, warm and sunny. Of course that is Nelson. It has been great to catch up with Frank and Jo and family, my uncle and aunty Graeme and Jan Sutton, and my little brother Dave.

Then the past weekend I have been at Sports Camp at Teapot Valley, the campsite I grew up going to as a much younger person. I actually went to the first sports camp there 15 years ago. It was great to catch up with some old faces but I was amazed at how some kids who were babies are now teenagers at camp themselves.

It was great to play a lot of sport and my body is certainly feeling it now. Our team came third overall. The best part was seeing 2 young people decide to give their lives to God and a number of Christians make a commitment to living every day with Jesus. We were reminded that Jesus is the way the truth and the life. Satan is a liar and loves to speak lies into our lives to keep us away from the truth.

News from the Ukraine front (notes from Cheryl in Rzhyschiv)

First things first - your house is still standing. The furnace blew up in Kolya's face last week when he went to restart it but he thinks he has the problem solved now.

Natasha got a job as a bookkeeper with a transportation company here in Rzhyschiv. Saturday morning I received a call from Sveta saying that she is moving to Kiev as her aunt found her a job as a bookkeeper with the same company that she works with.

Alyosha is doing better. Will find out more information on Friday and let you know.

Zhenya is having a tough time - drugs, sex and alcohol. That's from his mouth. He needs accountability. He is easily led and those who are leading are going down the wrong path.

Saturday I visited Toma's. Hopefully one day her mom will have a change of heart and will allow Toma to join us once again. Her mom invited me back so that's a good thing.

This next Saturday we will have another ladies meeting. Olya Z. is going to come and speak at it. Natasha's mom is going to come and tomorrow I am going to see if Zhana would like to join us. If you get this in time you can pray about that.
